

CHAIR GLENDA

The Glenda hospitality chair is a versatile project chair that blends harmoniously into a wide variety of interior design concepts thanks to its simple, understated design language. The beech wood frame is available in walnut, black, and oak stains, offering flexible design options for restaurants, cafés, hotels, or modern communal spaces. Its minimalist appearance makes Glenda a true all-rounder that performs equally well in both classic and contemporary interiors. For added comfort, the chair is optionally available with a seat cushion. A wide selection of colors, materials, and fabric qualities from the GO IN fabric collection is available, making it ideal for implementing customized interior concepts. This allows Glenda to be integrated subtly or used deliberately as a colorful accent while always remaining functional, durable, and suitable for hospitality environments.

- High seating comfort thanks to ergonomic backrest
- Solid hardwood frame, easy to maintain
- Maximum planning flexibility through a wide selection of materials
