The Mavilo outdoor armchair combines a lightweight, robust frame made of powder-coated aluminum with clear weather resistance. The surrounding rope weave on the backrest and sides defines the design and gives the chair a modern, inviting appearance. The frame, weave, and seat cushion are consistently very easy to maintain and designed for daily outdoor use. The included seat cushion made of 100% olefin is UV-resistant and water-repellent, making it ideal for terraces and beer gardens. Overall, a functional, durable chair that neatly combines comfort and practicality.

- Robust powder-coated aluminum frame – lightweight, weather-resistant, and durable for everyday hospitality use
- Easy-care, water-repellent rope weave
- UV-resistant, water-repellent olefin seat cushion for reliable outdoor comfort
